

A Landmark Weekend

Showcasing modern and contemporary art from around the world, the Dallas Art Fair makes its debut the weekend of February 6-8. Thirty dealers from 12 cities—including New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Fe, Chicago, and Houston—take part in the fair's premiere. "Never before have so many prominent dealers gathered in Dallas. It will be a landmark weekend," says John Sughrue, co-founder of the event along with art dealer Chris Byrne. The fair takes place in the Fashion Industry Gallery, adjacent to the Dallas Museum of Art in the Downtown Arts District.
