HAPPENINGS

Dallas Art Fair

We attended the first Dallas Art Fair last year, and it was quite an upscale affair. This year, more than 45 national and international galleries will take their wares to F.I.G. (Carl Andre, Charles Burchfield, John Chamberlain, Stuart Davis, and many more). Local galleries Dunn & Brown Contemporary, Barry Whistler, Marty Walker, and Kristy Stubbs will participate. Feb 5-7. Fashion Industry Gallery, 1807 Ross Ave. 214-220-1278. dallasartfair.com.

MUSEUMS

Andy Warhol: the Last Decade

The first museum exhibition of Warhol's work from his final years features 55 works "created amidst the bustle of Warhol's pop celebrity," according to the press release. Many think

MUSIC

Jay-Z

Since Jay-Z has sold more than 30 million copies of his albums in the United States alone, we can safely assume that you have heard his music. You may have even attempted to sing "99

THEATER

Phantom of the Opera

We're suckers for a love story about a beautiful young opera singer and a guy who lives in the catacombs of an opera house. This show has won several Tony Awards and is the longest-running musical on Broadway. Listen for Andrew Lloyd Webber's "Think of Me," "All I Ask of You," and "Music of the Night." Feb 17-Mar 14. Check website for times. Music Hall at Fair Park, 909 1st Ave. 214-631-2787. dallasummermusicals.org.

SPORTS

NBA All-Star Game

This thing is sold out. When we checked, online resellers were offering standing-room-only tickets for $60. A good seat? About $3,000. But there's more besides the big game on Sunday. There's the family-friendly all-weekend Jam Session, where you can meet current and former players. Feb 11-14. Check nba.com/allstar2010 for details.
