A Jagger gets satisfaction with her art career

Art and rock 'n' roll will converge at dealer Kristy Stubbs' booth during this week's Dallas Art Fair at the Fashion Industry Gallery.

Kristy will be showing works by 18-year-old up-and-comer Georgia May Jagger, the youngest child of Mick Jagger and locally raised beauty Jerry Hall. The Jagger-Hall offspring is not only an artist but also a model who poses for Versace and Hudson Jeans.

Being shown alongside the young Jagger will be work from her almost half brother-in-law, Piers Jackson. Throughout the '90s, Piers was involved with Georgia May's 38-year-old half sister, Jade Jagger, daughter of Mick and Bianca Jagger. Though no longer an item, Piers and Jade have two children.

Also in the Stubbs Gallery display will be paintings by Spanish singer-songwriter José-María Cano.

And to cleanse the palate, Kristy is showing pictures by photographer Ti Foster, who still shoots film, not digital, using a Hasselblad. Ti's architect father, Lord Norman Foster, and his firm, Foster + Partners, designed the Winspear Opera House.
