

A-List Opening

Everyone knows an invite to the opening of an exhibit at the Goss-Michael Foundation is one you only decline if you are genuinely sick (as opposed to can't-miss-30-Rock ill). So when a private opening reception was held for the TIM NOBLE AND SUE WEBSTER EXHIBIT, it was no wonder the likes of Heidi Dillon, Kelli and Allen Questrom, and Kimberly and Justin Whitman turned out. Provocative works by British artists Noble and Webster had guests cocking an eyebrow and nudging their dates.
