

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Barbara Buzzell
The Buzzell Company
bb@buzzellco.com
214-219-9191

MILLER, CURTIS & WEISBROD FORM NEW FIRM
Synergy of Practice Areas Create One of the Largest Plaintiffs Firms in Texas

DALLAS, TX (August 14, 2006) – Les Weisbrod, managing partner of Morgan & Weisbrod, one of the country's preeminent lawyers devoted to litigating medical malpractice, pharmaceutical product liability and medical device cases, and partners Clay Miller and Bill Curtis of The Law Offices of Miller and Curtis, a firm specializing in catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases, have announced a new, strategic partnership focusing on catastrophic injury cases for plaintiffs.

The new firm will be named Miller, Curtis & Weisbrod (www.mcwlawfirm.com) and will include twelve attorneys and over thirty-five staff.

Morgan & Weisbrod will cease representation of clients in medical malpractice and product liability cases and will solely continue in representation of clients needing assistance with Social Security disability benefit claims. Attorneys working with Les Weisbrod in the medical malpractice, drug product and personal injury area will join him at Miller, Curtis & Weisbrod. Morgan & Weisbrod will be headed by partner Carl Weisbrod and his team of six attorneys and 17 staff, who represent more than 70 years of combined experience handling Social Security disability claims.

"We see this as a synergistic partnership of respected legal talent with an extraordinary amount of trial experience. The backgrounds and outstanding capabilities of our attorneys and support staffs fit perfectly and can grow together to meet the needs of our clients across a broader range of catastrophic injury cases," said Clay Miller, the newly-elected managing partner of Miller, Curtis & Weisbrod.

-more-

The new firm will specialize in catastrophic injury cases for plaintiffs including those in the areas of:

- truck wrecks and commercial vehicle incidents
- defective auto design
- dangerous drugs and defective products
- construction and worksite injuries and accidents
- insurance bad faith
- medical malpractice

"I have been representing plaintiffs in medical malpractice cases for over 25 years and have recently handled some catastrophic injury and drug product cases collaborating successfully with Clay Miller and Bill Curtis. The extraordinary capabilities and different practice areas of the three partners will build a new firm with some of the best and most talented lawyers in all areas of catastrophic injury cases," said Les Weisbrod, partner in the new firm and newly-elected vice president of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America (ATLA).

Miller, Curtis & Weisbrod will office at 11551 Forest Central Drive, near the southeast intersection of Forest Lane and North Central Expressway.

Les Weisbrod has been a recognized leader in plaintiffs' trial law uniquely qualified to handle the intricacies of medical malpractice, drug product, medical device, and many other types of personal injury cases. With full-service offices in Dallas and Houston and affiliate offices in Austin, El Paso and Lubbock, Les Weisbrod is considered a powerful force achieving multimillion-dollar medical verdicts and settlements for victims. Les Weisbrod has tried or settled over 35 cases that resulted in awards of $1 million or more in net recovery going directly to the client and has recovered more than $400 million in awards.

The Law Offices of Miller and Curtis partners Clay Miller and Bill Curtis have recovered nearly $90 million for their clients since the founding of their firm in 2000. These recoveries involved cases of catastrophic injury and wrongful death arising out of construction and work site injuries, commercial vehicle wrecks, products liability, medical negligence and insurance bad faith. Miller and Curtis have represented victims exclusively. These recoveries were obtained in single injury cases, not mass tort settlements or class action settlements with hundreds of clients for each case.

# #