GOOD DEEDS IN DALLAS

Hosts With the Most: Cindy and Howard Rachofsky, of Dallas, are well known for their contemporary-art collection, and for the seventh straight year their Richard Meier-designed house was the site of one of the city's most popular parties: the Two by Two for AIDS and Art gala, a joint benefit for amfAR and the Dallas Museum of Art.

Sold! The 400 guests were treated to a display of more than a hundred works of art hung throughout the residence, including a painting by Cecily Brown that went for $130,000 in the live auction held after dinner. During the evening, special guest Barry Manilow had the crowd participate in a sing-along to some of his classic tunes, such as "Copacabana" and "Can't Smile Without You."

Masterpiece: The event raised a record $2.2 million, which will be shared by the two organizations.
